

Accountability Does Not Equal Assessment

Accountability \neq Assessment

Accountability is

- an essential part of healthy relationships
- only enduring when reciprocal
- based on agreed to or assumed standards and values over time
- a living dynamic of our humanity to self to another to an group to earth to all humanity to the spiritual world

Assessment

- Preset objectives
- Quick
- "Objective but not really"
- decrease uncertainty
- Standardization
- Useful in a continuous improvement context
- typically undermines healthy relationships
- Often evidence of ill-health of a relationship

Accountability is marked with a red dot and labeled 'assessment'. Assessment is marked with a blue dot and labeled 'Accountability'.
