

The Practice of Good Judgment

The Practice of Good Judgment

- "Good judgment is to predictably develop sound, consistent conclusions that are aligned with our purposes over the long term."
- Good judgment is not a random event.
- It is an invisible process to be learned.

1-10	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Self-awareness	- Clear intention ask questions Short-term + long term Intellectual humility
1-10	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Self reflection	- Objectively review + preview let time-management help
1-10	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Self-assessment	- Did I do what I intended Did it develop as I anticipated
1-10	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Self-correction	- Confirm part-confirm/part correct document findings